Meditation with Deacon Joe

Meditation is being held - as usual, on Tuesday afternoons at 2:00 pm in the Parish Center where Sunday Mass is held. We welcome back old friends who have been meditating with us for a while – and we look forward to meeting newcomers who might be thinking of joining us at this time of “new normalcy”. Remember to bring your mask with you. No one will be admitted without a mask.

I'll be happy to see all of you.
Deacon Joe

PRAYER REQUESTS

There is a great power in prayer. It is our lifeline to God. Through it we communicate with God, and people are strengthened, helped, and made whole'

Do you know of some concern, or of some person with a special need for whom we ought to pray? If so print out this form and place it in the offering basket or return it to the parish office.

STEWARDSHIP

A Way of Life

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

PRESENCE

It is difficult to be truly present to another. We speak of putting in an appearance or showing up. Even when we arrive, we are often distracted. We think ahead, or we review an unsettled past. Nonetheless, we are at our best when we truly show up. We are most fully ourselves when we are absorbed in something worthy of us: creative work, good conversation, prayer. In these instances we are wholly ourselves and wholly outside ourselves.

Elijah knew this kind of engagement. He was one of God's great prophets. In today's first reading, he follows God's command to journey to that most holy place, Mount Horeb. And there in great silence, Elijah encounters God.

As for Peter and the apostles, they discover the presence of God after the storm at sea. They and the sea and the winds are stunned into silent reverence.

REFLECTION

When the winds start to beat down on us and we feel as though we could drown in our stresses, sorrows, and worries, do we trust in Jesus? Do we find it difficult to thrust in Him when times are tough?

LIVING STEWARDSHIP

PILLAR of HOSPITALITY

God is generous to His children. This week be generous and kind to all you meet.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Over the last several weeks, the history of confirmation has been set out as a rite following baptism and preceding First Communion. Eucharist was a sacrament of spiritual maturity, attuned to the legal age of majority, which was considered to be fourteen years or so. Medieval bishops were often generous, if not especially pious, in seeing to it that children were confirmed before adulthood.

A pattern more familiar to us surfaced in the Diocese of Toulon in France in 1748, where it was decreed that "children are to be confirmed only after receiving First Communion." This was an amazing shift in practice that undermined centuries of theology and tradition by which confirmation was seen as a bridge between font and table. The innovation swept through France and across Europe, despite constant complaints from Rome. French-trained bishops like Cheverus of Boston and Carroll of Baltimore, founders of the American church, established the practice here. The order of the sacraments was thus disrupted in France and in the United States, and remained an eccentric exception to the rule until big developments in 1910.
