REFLECTION

St. Paul tells us in his letter to the Romans that to love our neighbor is to obey God. When we love our neighbor, we recognize the dignity in that person and realize that they are also created and loved by God.

LIVING STEWARDSHIP
PILLAR of HOSPITALITY

In today's readings, we are called to love and forgive our brothers and sisters. Perhaps this week you could reach out to a lonely family member or friend and just chat with them. If you are holding a grudge against someone, let this be the week you let it go.

PRAYER REQUESTS

There is a great power in prayer. It is our lifeline to God. Through it we communicate with God, and people are strengthened, helped, and made whole'

Do you know of some concern, or of some person with a special need for whom we ought to pray? If so print out this form and place it in the offering basket or return it to the parish office.

Meditation with Deacon Joe

Meditation is being held - as usual, on Tuesday afternoons at 2:00 pm in the Parish Center where Sunday Mass is held. We welcome back old friends who have been meditating with us for a while – and we look forward to meeting newcomers who might be thinking of joining us at this time of “new normalcy”. Remember to bring your mask with you. No one will be admitted without a mask. I'll be happy to see all of you.

Deacon Joe

Mass and Masks

Masks are required for Mass attendance. Masks should cover the nose and mouth and remain on for the entire Mass.

SPEAKING OUT IN LOVE

In the final verses of today's Gospel reading Jesus says that when two or three are gathered in his name, "there am I in the midst of them" (Matthew 18:20). So we understand that fraternal correction is always undertaken in the presence of Jesus Christ.

Likewise, encouraging the good in others is not only the right thing for us to do, it is a necessity. The LORD tells the prophet Ezekiel that if he does not speak out to dissuade a person from evil, then he too will be held responsible.

We live in a "do your own thing" age where moral objectivity is often ignored. Clearly when the message we share with others is rooted in love, our motives cannot ever be misinterpreted. As Saint Paul writes, "Love does no evil to the neighbor; hence, love is the fulfillment of the law" (Romans 13:10).
