FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

The Choir Loft!

Dear ICC Family,

Last weekend, the choir sounded amazing, partly because we now utilize the choir loft. Bobby Peterson, our Music Director, and Shawn Pinson, our Sacristan, spent days cleaning it out and bringing up all necessary equipment (keyboard, speakers, etc.). Every night, I saw one of their cars parked in the back parking lot and thought, "What's Bobby doing here?" or "Why is Shawn here so late?" Now I know! They had, of course, told me what they were intending to do and got my permission. But I thought they were planning on having it ready for Easter. On Saturday morning, they brought an extension ladder into the church. I asked Shawn if they thought the choir loft would be ready by Easter. He said, "It'll be ready tonight!" I couldn't believe it. God bless these two wonderful men who love the music ministry so much that they ALWAYS go beyond!

Speaking of wonderful musicians, I was blessed to be able to see one of our main Cantors, Laura Laureano, star in Evita at CM Performing Arts Center in Oakdale last weekend. She was AMAZING! Laura was non-stop dancing, singing, and acting for two hours. What talent some people have! Laura, in case you were unaware, is Bobby's fiancée. What a wonderful couple they are! God bless them!

God's blessings to you all!

Fr. Ken

P.S. Thank you all so much for answering my cry for help. I had 5 people come forward to pet-sit Teddy on my day off. This will be such a blessing because Teddy hates the car, and he never has a chance to interact with other dogs! He's very social with people, as you can tell lol, but he's just learning how to act with other dogs.

God bless you!

FROM DEACON JOE'S DESK ...

Saint Peter at the Gates A Reflection by Deacon Joe Byrne

We all know who guards the Pearly Gates, it's Saint Peter. And as Joseph approached the Gates, Saint Peter did a strange thing, he closed them. Joseph had no idea what was going on and so he said, "Hay Pete, what's up?" Now Saint Peter was no help at all, he just said, "Wait over there."

Joseph turned to take a look at where Peter was pointing and when he turned back Saint Peter was nowhere to be found. Now, the first thing that Joseph did was go and check those gates. They were locked. Then Joseph started to look around and he noticed as he looked from one thing to the next, he found it was always more beautiful than the last thing he looked at. He was thrilled.

As Joseph is doing this, Saint Peter is looking for someone in heaven and when he spots the guy he is looking for, he goes up to him and whispers over his shoulder, "He's at the gate." With that, this guy takes off, like a bat out of hell, racing for the gate. Now Joseph is still admiring everything he can see but out of the corner of his eye, he notices this guy racing down the path. The first thought in his mind is, "If he slips, he is really going to hurt himself." So Joseph goes to the middle of the path, plants his feet, raises his arms, starts waiving them, and shouts, "Slow down, the gate's closed." With that, this guy stops on a dime right in front of him, big smile on his face and says, "Joseph, I came to welcome you."

At the sound of his name Joseph knew exactly who this guy was, and he said, "O Jesus, I was hoping to bump into you up here. I have some questions for you." Still smiling, Jesus said, "Ya Joseph, I know, let's go sit under that tree that Peter likes so much, and talk about your life." When Saint Peter got back to the gate, he can't hear what they're saying, but he knows when they hit the happy parts because he can see the smiles and the laughter. He knows when they hit the sad parts because he can see the tears and the sobs. He knows when they hilt the really hilarious parts because he can see the belly laughs.

And he knows when Joseph is asking those questions that he wants answers to because he could see Joseph resting his chin on his hand and the nodding of heads as questions were answered and explanations were given. It was a long and deep conversation. And when they were done, they got up and headed to the gate and Peter hears Jesus say, "Come on Joseph let's check out your new digs and there are a lot of people up here waiting to wrap you in their love and welcome you."

The point of the reflection is that Joseph is alive in a new way in your heart, just as Jesus is. So, pray for him and pray to him. And Peace be with every one of you.

This is a reflection I use at most Vigil Services and graveside committals that I preside at. Feel free to substitute the name of a loved one who has gone back home and is engaged in a deep conversation with Jesus.

CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL (CMA)

On Tuesday, February 20th a CMA letter was sent out asking you to join in Revitalizing Our Faith --Renewed by the Eucharist. The Eucharistic Revival has renewed our belief in the true presence of Jesus and reminds us that when we receive Jesus, we receive a true gift that nourishes and encourages us to imitate His love and compels us to do His work in the world. The Appeal gives us a unique opportunity to give fervent public witness of our love of Christ through our acts of charity, touching the lives of thousands of people here on Long Island and to fulfill our Lenten call – to give alms to those in need.

Your participation in the CMA serves others in our duty to evangelize and share the love of our faith by supporting the education of our seminarians, deacons, and lay leaders as they prepare to serve in our diocese and local parish communities. You help us to bring faith to our young people in religious education and special retreats and those participating in Youth, Young Adult and Campus Ministry Your gifts continue the mission of serving those in need through our Parish Outreach programs. Programs and Catholic Charities.

Please give prayerful thought to your level of support to help fund the essential ministries and services supported by this Appeal, which serves more than 600,000 people in our community each year.

Your support to the Appeal will help to ensure that our church will have a firm financial foundation. 100% of every dollar raised is restricted to fund the objectives, programs, and mission supported by the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The second Sunday of Lent every year recalls the Transfiguration of the Lord. Since the fourth century, Mount Tabor has been the focus of devotion to this event. As mountains go, it is not particularly lofty, rising about fifteen hundred feet, within view of the Sea of Galilee and very close to Nazareth. Scripture doesn't identify the mountain, but in the year 348 Saint Cyril of Jerusalem said he preferred Mount Tabor to Mount Hermon as the site of the Transfiguration, and his opinion won. It has long been a strategic military site, and ancient fortresses are visible on the heights. Over Transfiguration of the Lord the centuries, churches and fortified monasteries rose on the mountaintop, only to be destroyed by various invaders. Six hundred years ago, local Christians started to decorate the ruins with flags and banners on the Feast of the Transfiguration. In 1631, the Sultan granted permission to the Franciscans to live on Mount Tabor, and they have been there ever since, discovering the ruins of an old Crusader church and constructing the present church on the site in 1924.

The top of the mountain is divided into Greek Orthodox and Latin (that's us) zones. At one time, tourists arrived on the summit by bus, but this is no longer permitted. Some ride bicycles up a challenging and winding path, while others take the four thousand three hundred steps constructed for Christian pilgrims in the fourth century. It's hard to imagine the fishermen following Jesus up this craggy mountain without complaint. Visitors will sympathize with Peter's plan to construct booths and stay put with Jesus, Moses, and Elijah for a while, enjoying the view, and planning the trip back down.
