The parish will receive 20% of the goal once all pledged payments are received. The parish will receive an additional 80% of monies pledged & received over goal.

GOD'S DENTIST

As a priest, I am blessed to meet many living saints and to have the best medical care available. Sometimes, these two coincide in an extraordinary way. Over 20 years ago, when I was a cook at the St. Pius X Residence for retired priests in Uniondale, I used to take Fr. Dennis Sheridan to his dentist. Fr. Dennis was a holy priest, but his teeth needed a LOT of work. Immediately upon entering the office of Dr. Joseph Bacigalupo, DDS, I was transported to a bygone era. Dr. Bacigalupo and his secretary/dental assistant, Janet, were dressed in all white and looked like they were walking out of a 50s TV show. They immediately welcomed us with a firm handshake and a warm smile. I had been to many dentists' offices before and had never experienced anything like it. I was happy because I loved Fr. Dennis, and I could tell they did too! While waiting for Fr. Dennis, I looked around for some reading material. Instead of Time and Newsweek, the magazine rack and coffee table were filled with books about Mother Teresa, Pope John Paul II, and the Vatican. That's when it hit me. This wasn't just a workspace. This was a holy place. As we were leaving, another patient was arriving. She received the same VIP treatment!

Dr. Bacigalupo

Fast-forward years, and I was searching for a dentist, so I naturally decided to try Dr. Bacigalupo. He had completely transformed Fr. Denis' teeth, so I knew he was good.

What I didn't realize was how good. Instead of having a dental hygienist clean teeth, the doctor does it himself. For 45 minutes, he painstakingly deep-cleaned every tooth...all along teaching me a detailed lesson on the importance of flossing, the biology of good bacteria, etc...while dictating his assessment of each tooth to Janet, who took copious notes. When I left there, my mouth never felt cleaner. They go through this process every time, treating me more like a friend than a patient.

I recently chipped a tooth. I called the office. Even though I wasn't in any pain, they wanted me to come in right away. As soon as I arrived, and for the next 90 minutes, they non-stopped worked on my broken tooth. They must have gone through 50 steps in an efficient, thorough fashion. Years ago, I had a crown done, but it was a completely different experience. I have to go back twice more, every two weeks, so that the gum has a chance to heal completely before the next step. Even though Dr. Bacigalupo's office is in Hempstead, I'm happy to make the trip!

May God bless this amazing dentist and his equally amazing secretary. And may all of us, including priests, treat everyone we meet with the same respect they afford to all their patients!

Mother Teresa used to say, "Jesus is the leper. Jesus is the homeless." For Dr. Bacigalupo and Janet, Jesus is also the patient!

God's Blessings!

Fr. Ken

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

September 23, 2024

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

At this year's general election, New York voters will decide whether to approve a proposed amendment to the State Constitution. Officially known as "Proposal One", the amendment would add new language to the State's version of the "Bill of Rights" that, if approved, could insert gender ideology into child and adult sports, schools, hospitals, and even our churches.

The proponents of Proposal One refer to it as the "Equal Rights Amendment" and claim that the amendment is intended to protect the right to access an abortion. Proposal One, however, does nothing to ensure "equal rights" nor does it have anything to do with the legality of abortion in New York.

Since 1938, the State Constitution has guaranteed the right to the equal protection of the laws and has barred discrimination against any individual by a public or private institution based upon "race, color, creed or religion." Now, eighty-five years after the adoption of the Constitution's prohibition on discrimination, the State Legislature has discovered that we need an "Equal Rights Amendment" that ensures a "right" to an abortion in New York.

New York's abortion laws are already among the most permissive in the nation. Proposal One does nothing to alter the abortion laws or to further liberalize them. In fact, the word "abortion" does not appear anywhere in the proposed amendment. New Yorkers who vote in favor of Proposal One because they believe it will provide additional legal guarantees related to abortion are victims of a misleading campaign that masks the true purpose of the amendment.

Voters need only to read the language set forth in Proposal One to learn its actual purpose and to discern its potential for harm. While they will find no mention of abortion, voters will discover that, if adopted, Proposal One would prohibit discrimination based upon "gender identity" or "gender expression." This language would transform the laudable and longstanding anti-discrimination article in the State Constitution into a legal weapon that would force institutions across the state—public and private, religious, and secular—to accommodate the most radical forms of gender ideology.

Under this language, for example, a CYO girls' basketball team, or a local girls' soccer club, could be forced to allow a biological male to participate on the team if he wishes to do so because of his "gender expression." To bar such a person from the team would constitute an act of illegal discrimination.

The same language can be employed against health clubs, public and private schools, restaurants, and other public places to mandate that these institutions open their bathrooms and locker rooms to anyone, regardless of biological sex, based upon an individual's "gender identity." To restrict access to a bathroom or locker room according to biological sex would be another form of unconstitutional discrimination.

Furthermore, Proposal One would undermine the bedrock religious liberty protections that the State Constitution is supposed provide for Catholic parishes, schools, and hospitals, as well as for the religious institutions administered by other faiths. The amendment would expose a church or school to a lawsuit if, for example, it refused to hire a "transgender" catechist or dismissed an employee for the promotion of notions about gender that are antithetical to Church teaching. A teacher could demand to be called by a "preferred pronoun", as could any student, regardless of age. A refusal to adopt this sort of language regime would violate the Constitution.

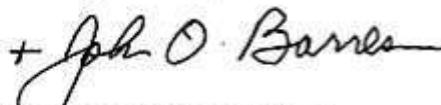

Catholic hospitals that do not perform gender-related surgeries could be sued for illegal discrimination against people who wish to express their gender identity through a medical procedure.

Supporters of Proposal One dismiss these concerns as far-fetched fearmongering. Yet they cannot offer any other plausible application of the language in the amendment. Unlike proposals in other states that were designed to limit the power of a state legislature to regulate access to abortion, Proposal One never mentions abortion, nor does it expressly restrict the power of the State Legislature to pass laws related to abortion. Instead, the amendment adds a "word salad" of terms to the State Constitution that would turn the shield of anti-discrimination protection into a sword that can be used to pierce religious and secular institutions in order to impose, by force of law, a gender ideology that voters have never endorsed.

New York's Constitution has, for nearly a century, expressly prohibited discriminatory practices. Proposal One does nothing to enhance the universally accepted principle of equality before the law. Proposal One is, instead, a deceptive effort to impose an ideological agenda upon the State disguised by popular and inoffensive rhetoric about "equal rights" and by appealing to voters who believe the state's abortion laws are at risk of change. But, to paraphrase the Gospel, by its language you shall know it. The words of Proposal One reveal its true intent and the effects it would have if adopted.

New Yorkers who do not wish to see the State Constitution used to implement a harmful gender ideology that would reach into nearly every facet of ever day life, from sports to schools, from bathrooms to gyms to hospitals—even into churches, synagogues and mosques—must vote "NO" on Proposal One.

Sincerely in Christ,

Wednesday, October 30th

Level 9 Confirmation Parent Meeting @ 7:30pm in Parish Center.

INTRODUCTION TO THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

We have been called to follow the Lord Jesus. Like the disciples, we often stumble on the way, seeking to serve ourselves rather than others. As we offer this great prayer of thanksgiving, let us pray that we will become more and more like Christ, who is our way to the Father.

PRAY FOR OUR SICK

Agustin Veliz Arriaza, Kevin Chisholm,
Lisa Falcone, Blythe Fickenwirth, Michael Hubbard,
Young Katie Kennedy, Maureen Lawrence,
Dick Nolan, & Rosanna.

Please call the Parish Office (631-288-1423) to add a name to the sick list. This list will be cleared occasionally.

INTRODUCTION TO THE LITURGY OF THE DAY

Today is World Mission Sunday, a day on which we bring to mind the missionaries who preach and live the gospel to those who have not yet heard or understood it. Today also marks the beginning of Pastoral Care Week, in which we recognize those who give spiritual care to those in need. But it is also important to realize that every one of us is called to be both a missionary of the gospel and a giver of pastoral care. As Jesus teaches his disciples in today's Gospel, we are all called to serve.

REFLECTIONS

Living Stewardship

We are called to serve the Lord and others. When we serve others, we also serve the Lord. Do something this week to put yourself at the service of others. Perhaps visit a friend or family member in the hospital or nursing home.

Bulletin Reflection

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us to serve others and be like Him.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO BECOME AN ALTAR SERVER?

Altar servers are the boys and girls who assist the priest at Mass on Sundays and on other special occasions. They have an important leadership in the celebration of the Mass and are special people for giving and participating so actively in the Mass.

Duties of an Altar Server involve everything from assisting the priest, lighting candles, carrying the cross, ringing the bells and praying. They join with Jesus as they give their time in his service at the altar.

Who can do this?

Boys and girls who have received their First Communion.

What you have to do

- Decide if you are willing to give this service to Jesus in your church. You have to be at the Mass you are assigned on Sundays as you would have to be at every practice and game on a sports team.
- Talk it over with your parents since this will affect them also. Remember, they have to get you there. Of course, if there is an occasional conflict, you can ask another altar server to substitute for you.
- Fill out the form below and ask your parent to sign it. If you or your parents have any questions, please call Fr. Ken or speak with Deacon Joe.
- Return the completed form to the Religious Education Office. You will be contacted by Colleen Robesch who coordinates the schedules.
- The training dates are: October 21, 22, 23, 28, 29, 30. Training will be in the Main Church from 5:30pm-6:30pm. You must attend at least 3 out of the 8 training dates but are welcome to attend all dates. A parent will need to attend as well.

Dear Father Ken:

I would like to join Jesus by being an Altar Server at Mass on Sunday. I have talked it over with my parents and they will help me by bringing me to my assigned Masses.

- Non-judgmental support and guidance by a team of trained professionals for any woman who is pregnant and in need, regardless of age, religious belief or affiliation, marital status or immigration status.
- Facilitation of access to medical care concerning mother and baby before, during and after pregnancy.
- Guidance on community resources that are available during this time of need, such as agencies in the local area that provide food, shelter or clothing.

All conversations are safe and confidential.

If you or someone you know needs pregnancy assistance, help is available any time.
