TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading: In a vision Isaiah is called to be a messenger for the LORD of hosts. Isaiah responds, "Send me!" (Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8)

Psalms: In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord (Psalm 138).

Second Reading: Paul reminds us of the gospel he preached through which we are saved, if we believe it (1 Corinthians 15:1-11 [3-8, 11]).

Gospel: Jesus directs Simon to take his boat into deep water for a miraculous catch of fish. Simon and his partners leave all to follow Jesus (Luke 5:1-11).

eGIVING OPPORTUNITIES

eGiving makes it easy to give, anytime, anywhere. To continue lifesaving ministries and outreach in our parish community, we depend on generous online donations from our church family. We prayerfully invite you to use eGiving from your computer, smartphone, or tablet to set up a recurring donation or make a one-time gift.

FAITH DIRECT

Enrolling with Faith Direct will provide Immaculate Conception with consistent support and simplify your giving without the use of envelopes. Visit:

CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

The 2025 Catholic Ministries Appeal

The 2025 Catholic Ministries Appeal is happening in our parish and in parishes across the Diocese. Please give prayerful consideration to help fund the essential ministries and services supported by this appeal.

Goal	$ 62,100.00
Total Pledged	$ 0
Payments Received	$ 0

Donors: 0 % of Goal: 0%

The parish will receive 20% of the goal once all pledged payments are received. The parish will receive an additional 80% of monies pledged & received over goal.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Friends,

A parishioner asked me if we could restart serving the Eucharist under both species (Bread and Wine). I consulted three pastor friends in the diocese who warned against it at this time, because there are too many viruses going around. Hopefully, in the future we will be able to restart serving both.

In the meantime, please remember that the Eucharist is one. The Most Precious Blood is in the Most Holy Body of Christ.

Thank you for your understanding and your patience,

Fr. Ken

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

As the Roman Empire shattered and collapsed, the bishops were the people best equipped to catch the falling stones. In the West (that's us), they sought to stabilize society by weaving a structure of laws and courts to uphold the rights and dignity of married couples in a chaotic world. The bishops in the East had a different approach, even allowing the dissolution of marriages in certain cases. To an extent, the bishops took a measure of control away from the fathers of families in order to provide pastoral care for those who suffered most in the social collapse: women and children.

In the West, much of the marriage law was contained in the "penitential books" the bishops devised to regulate the lives of public sinners. In the seventh century, Theodore of Canterbury's penitential book said that he had the power to give consent to remarriage in the case of a poor fellow whose wife had been carried off by the Vikings. If the Vikings subsequently brought her back, she could remarry, too! No bishop ever made peace with divorce, but there was never a time when the pastoral concern of the church was not struggling with how to care for people in unhappy situations.

SUNDAY'S COMMENTARY

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY!

"Holy, holy, holy!" Ancient languages, like the Hebrew used in the scriptures, did not always have a way to express superlatives in one word. Isaiah could not say God was "holiest," so he used the threefold repetition of the same word. This bit of scriptural minutiae about these "three little words" that we sing at every Mass serves as a reminder that answering God's call has to be grounded in awareness of God's holiness. In Isaiah and in the Gospel passage today, we hear accounts of the revelation of God's power and might: the seraphim in the temple and the miraculous catch of fish. These are not wondrous revelations for their own sakes. They lead to a response in mission, Isaiah's "Here I am, send me!" and the disciples' leaving everything to follow Jesus. And so must our own "Holy, Holy, Holy!" lead us to Christ in the Eucharist every Sunday, and to a life following him day by day.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Religious Education Office Hours are:
Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday
9am to 5pm

IMPORTANT DATES TO REMEMBER FOR FEBRUARY

February 17 - 19th

School Winter Break - NO CLASSES

PUZZLE BOOK DRIVE

Our Level 4 catechists have started a great service project for their Level 4 students to donate Puzzle Books for our Veterans. Our Level 4 catechists will deliver these puzzle books to the Veterans Home in Stony Brook for St. Valentine's Day. This is a nice way to let our Veteran's know they are loved and not forgotten.

We would like to open up this puzzle book drive to all families to participate in. There is a free puzzle book that comes once a month in the Sunday Newsday and the local discount store has puzzle books for sale. LARGE PRINT are especially encouraged.

We will have a collection box for the puzzle books in the hall by our classrooms. You can also drop them off in the Parish Center Office. THANK YOU SO MUCH! These will surely bring a smile to the Vets!

INTRODUCTION TO THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

All the earth is filled with God's glory. With hearts full of praise, we offer this great thanksgiving prayer.

INTRODUCTION TO THE LITURGY OF THE DAY

Today we hear how two key figures in the Bible—Isaiah and Peter—are called. God calls Isaiah in a vision. Jesus calls Simon Peter after performing a miracle. Though both go on to great things on the Lord's behalf, each initially feels unworthy of their call. Only after being reassured do they respond affirmatively. We may well feel unworthy ourselves of a call to join Jesus on his mission. Let us consider how we can still respond as Isaiah did: "Here I am . . . send me."

REFLECTIONS

Living Stewardship

This week, develop a habit of praying AND listening. Each morning, ask Jesus to show you the way throughout the day and for the wisdom and courage to follow His way.

Bulletin Reflection

In the Gospel reading, the future Apostles of Jesus listen to His instructions on catching fish. Despite not catching anything all day, they do as He says—and their catch is miraculously large.

LITURGICAL MINISTER TRAINING here at Immaculate Conception Church Saturday, March 29th 9:00am to 4:00pm

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion Training
Part A (Basic) & B (Homebound)

Lector Training

Please contact the Parish Office if you would like to attend the training here. A written request from the Pastor to the Bishop is required in order to attend.

PRAYER REQUESTS

There is a great power in prayer. It is our lifeline to God. Through it we communicate with God, and people are strengthened, helped, and made whole.

Do you know of some concern, or of some person with a special need for whom we ought to pray? We have 29 prayer warriors praying, please call Charles Schmidt at 631-288-4243 and leave a message with your prayer request.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

When I have felt like I was in deep water, in over my head, when doing something I felt called by God to do? Did I overcome my fear or discomfort and how?

All are Welcome!

This year, both Spring and the Fall, we'll study "THE BIBLE and the VIRGIN MARY"

This Bible Study, written by Dr. Scott Hahn, has a new format, one that we will discuss at our first gathering on February 20th!

*This study requires an additional book (will be provided), "Hail Holy Queen," also written by Dr. Scott Hahn, a renowned theologian and author.

*The Videos are engaging, informative in an intriguing way, and promise to provide us with many new topics to discuss at our meetings.

*In addition, each week we will focus on one of the Rosary Mysteries, the artwork, scripture, readings, and pray one decade!

Filled with intriguing chapter heading, questions, and information these two books ($25) will be used for both the Spring Session and the Fall Session!

JOIN us on this journey, which involves us in learning about:

- *MARY's life through Scripture.
- *What her life was like in Jerusalem before the Annunciation, and after.
- *Her role in Christ's Ministry and in his first miracle at Cana, and much more.
- *Marian Art of the Catholic Church through music and prayers honoring Mary.
- *rediscovering the Rosary Mysteries, and the BVM's role in salvation history.

Share your Faith and Fellowship with other Ladies from the Parish, while we learn about Mary, her life, her devotion to God and to Christ!

Bible Study Guides and Hail Holy Queen, are available at the first meeting on February 20th!

NOTE: To Register and Reserve a copy of the Bible Study Books, or If you have any questions:

All are Welcome! Invite a Friend! We'd love to meet you!

Como católicos nuestra misión nos envía a difundir el evangelio a todas las personas. Hay una frase que quizás haya escuchado, “predique el Evangelio en todo momento y cuando sea necesario use palabras.” Esa frase nos lleva a recordar que las acciones hablan más que las palabras y con nuestras acciones debemos dar ejemplo de que somos discípulos de Jesucristo. Una manera de hacerlo es haciendo un donativo que beneficiará a otra persona. La Campaña de Apoyo a los Ministerios Católicos -CMA por sus siglas en inglés- nos da esa oportunidad.

Su donativo a favor de CMA es crucial para sostener muchos ministerios y programas en toda la diócesis. Ministerios como los de Formación de fe para nuestros seminaristas, diáconos y líderes laicos; los de Formación de fe para nuestros adultos jóvenes y ministerios juveniles; clases de Educación Religiosa para nuestros niños; iniciativas para promover el Respeto a la Vida; programas de Caridades Católicas de vivienda asequible para ancianos y personas con discapacidades, programas de tratamiento de adicciones, programas que ofrecen alimentos y asistencia a los programas sociales parroquiales.

La labor que los fondos que CMA recauda son muy importantes ya que tienen un alcance en todo Long Island y asiste a personas de todas las edades. El donativo que hoy usted hace tendrá un gran impacto en los años venideros. Su donativo puede sostener la educación de un seminarista que será sacerdote y que dedicará su vida a llevar a Jesucristo a los demás. Su donativo puede ayudar a alguien a romper las cadenas de la adicción y comenzar una nueva vida con dignidad y fe. Su donativo puede ayudar a una joven madre soltera a tener la confianza y seguridad que necesita para criar a su bebé. Todos nuestros donativos ayudan a las personas que más lo necesitan en nuestra comunidad.

Le pido que se una a mí, junto con nuestros hermanos y hermanas de nuestra diócesis y en oración considere hacer un donativo a favor de la Campaña de Apoyo a los Ministerios Católicos 2025. Por favor contribuya tanto como le sea posible, todos los donativos son importantes, no importa la cantidad. Recuerde que el 100% de cada dólar que recaudamos se usa exclusivamente para sostener los programas y la misión de la Campaña de Apoyo a los Ministerios Católicos. Ningún donativo se usa ni ha sido usado para la liquidación de bancarrota.

Para concluir, si en este momento usted está pasando por circunstancias que no le permiten hacer un donativo, por favor comuníquese con la parroquia, para que nosotros de alguna manera podamos ayudarle. Recuerde que usted no está solo y la comunidad de la iglesia está siempre aquí para brindarle asistencia.

Que Dios lo bendiga a usted, a sus seres queridos y a nuestra parroquia.

Sinceramente suyo en Cristo,

Fr. Ken

Members of the Eastport Fire Department made a large food delivery to the Food Pantry recently together with a very generous donation of $1,500!

Thank you for your generosity, kindness, and compassion to the needy in our community!

Got JOY?

"Yet I will rejoice in the Lord,
I will be joyful in God my Savior." Habakkuk 2:17

Please join us as we worship, share a meal and listen to a powerful testimony by our speaker, Susan Polvin. Susan shares: "I like having a clean house. Everything always looks so good on the outside, but don't look into my closets. Life is like that too. My 'closets' were stuffed with insecurity, comparison, loneliness and the scars of hitting life's hurdles and hurts. But the Lord had plans for my healing and restoration.

And He has those plans for you too!"

Susan Polvin, worship leader and inspirational speaker, has been involved in Catholic and ecumenical renewal work for more than forty years. She and her husband, Uly, who have been married for 43 years, reside in Sardinville, Ohio. Susan is the leader of Living Praise Worship Team, which travels nationally and internationally, serving such groups as Magnificat - A Ministry to Catholic Women, Women of Grace®, and the National Charismatic Renewal. Susan is the Chair for Praise and Worship for the Magnificat ministry. She has also served on the advisory team of the National Service Committee for Charismatic Renewal. With Living Praise, Susan has produced seven worship CD's. Susan has a passion to speak and teach about praise and worship and inspire others in their relationship with the Lord. Graduating from Franciscan University of Sardinville with a B.A. in Theology, Susan also has a Masters of Education in School Counseling from Liberty University and is a trained Spiritual Director through the School of Spiritual Direction at Franciscan University. Susan works as a school counselor at a K-12 Christian school.
