A close-up photograph of a hand holding a thick, old book. The hand is positioned on the right side of the frame, with the fingers gripping the edges of the book. The book is held at an angle, showing its spine and pages. The background is a soft, out-of-focus sunset or sunrise scene with warm, golden light and a textured, cloudy sky. The overall mood is contemplative and spiritual.

TODAY'S READINGS

Acts 15:1-2, 22-29: Faced with controversy, the disciples reach a decision under the Holy Spirit's guidance.

Psalm 67: "O God, let all the nations praise you!"

Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23: John sees the city of God illumined in splendor.

John 14:23-29: Jesus promises to send the Holy Spirit to guide his followers.

Today's readings reel from the practical to the visionary and back again. In the first reading, the original apostles, guided by the Holy Spirit, decide what to require of uncircumcised Gentile converts, of which there were many. Next, we hear another vision of John's from Revelation. Finally, Jesus prepares the apostles for the time after he has ascended to the Father. His message is both practical and visionary. May God's word also enhance our faith in both ways.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear ICC Family,

It is with great sadness that I announce my resignation as pastor and my departure from Immaculate Conception on Wednesday June 25, 2025. My last Sunday Mass will be 11:00am on June 22nd.

The past two years have been a wonderful experience for me. I have met some of the most amazing people and you have welcomed me with open arms. But, I have also learned something about myself and have come to the conclusion, after much soul-searching and consultation, that my true vocation is to be a regular priest. I have neither the interest nor the ability to be an administrator or business manager, both of which I have come to believe are necessary qualifications to be a successful pastor. I just want to be with the people and share the love and joy of God.

The good news is that my replacement, Fr Tom Pers, is a seasoned pastor (even though he is only 49) and a wonderful priest. Tom is currently serving as associate pastor at St. Mary's in East Islip. He's one of the nicest guys you will ever meet. He's also extremely smart, comes from a nice area (Brightwaters), was an Eagle Scout, and is a gifted preacher - no props, but hey nobody's perfect! Lol.

Just as I am convinced that Pope Leo is the perfect pope for this particular time in the US and world history, I am convinced that Fr. Tom is the perfect pastor for Immaculate Conception. He is also very traditional and bilingual. What's not to like?! You are going to LOVE Fr. Tom and he will love you!

Please pray for me as I return to my former parish, Corpus Christi in Mineola, where I go every week on my day off. I am confident that you will have an amazing experience with your new pastor, Fr Tom!

May God bless you all and enjoy the Summer!

Fr. Ken

TEDDY'S CORNER

As you may have heard ... Fr. Ken cannot take Teddy with him at his new Parish, so he has found a loving family (in our Parish) that will take Teddy as their own. Here are pics with Teddy's new family ... the Alvarenga family ... Alexandra, Dilan, and Christopher. Good luck with Teddy ... we know he'll love being with you!

PRAYER REQUESTS

There is a great power in prayer. It is our lifeline to God. Through it we communicate with God, and people are strengthened, helped, and made whole.

Do you know of some concern, or of some person with a special need for whom we ought to pray? We have 29 prayer warriors praying, please call Charles Schmidt at 631-288-4243 and leave a message with your prayer request.

INTRODUCTION TO THE EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

Brighter than the sun and moon together, with a light that makes the walls of the holy city sparkle like crystal, God's Lamb shines in splendor. In the eucharistic feast, all created things stream into the twelve gates of the new Jerusalem to begin the supper of the Lamb.

INTRODUCTION TO THE LITURGY OF THE DAY

As we continue this glorious Easter season, we approach the solemnity of the Ascension, marking Jesus' ascent from this earth to be with the Father in heaven forever. In John's account of the Last Supper, Jesus, knowing that his time here was short, prepared the disciples for the future. He specifically promises to leave them with two gifts: his peace and the Holy Spirit. Let us give thanks for the peace of Christ and the Holy Spirit, two incomparable gifts which nearly two thousand years later we have been given as well.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

One ancient Roman custom that was approved by the church was the veiling of the bride. When a single woman pledged her life to Christ, in a way of life not dissimilar to today's religious women, the outward sign of this commitment was a veiling. In ancient Rome, a woman with uncovered head was unmarried, and a veiled woman was "off limits to suitors." It was one small step to decide that a bride should receive a veil from the hands of the church as a sign of her new state in life. The prayer that accompanied the veiling was beautiful, and sung, a kind of consecratory prayer that was very similar to the prayer of ordination, or the prayers for blessing holy water or chrism. The "nuptial blessing" originally mentioned only the woman, although we know that the veil was often extended to cover the husband's shoulders also. The blessing was located before the kiss of peace, which the priest gave to the husband, and the husband to his new bride. Remember that this is in the early centuries, long before the kiss of peace virtually disappeared from liturgy.

The veiling and blessing was required when priests or deacons married, was recommended to laypersons, but forbidden for certain public sinners and second marriages. The veiling of the couple was preserved in England until the Reformation, and is returning to practice among Swedish Lutherans after having fallen into disuse about seventy-five years ago.
