TODAY'S READINGS

Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29: Ancient wisdom insists that the more humble we are, the greater we are.

Psalms 68: "God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor."

Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24a: Far from frightening, our encounter with God will be like a glorious holiday.

Luke 14:1, 7-14: Jesus presents his own version of table manners.

The virtue of humility is extolled throughout today's readings. Sirach teaches, "Humble yourself the more, the greater you are, and you will find favor with God" (Sirach 3:18). The psalmist writes that God makes a home for the poor, orphans, widows, prisoners, and the forsaken. Though not directly mentioning humility, the author of Hebrews alludes to the signs of the old and new covenants, which leave us humbled. Finally, Jesus teaches the Pharisees that God exalts those who humble themselves. May God's word inspire us to embrace humility.

A MESSAGE FROM FR. TOM

Dear Parishioners,

As we celebrate Labor Day this weekend, I just wanted to take this opportunity to thank you all for making me feel welcomed here at Immaculate Conception Parish. Summer has gone by quickly, and I've been working on settling into my new home. I'm still getting to know everyone and trying to find my way around. For a small town, there is definitely a lot of activity around here, especially this time of year. We are getting ready for the new year of school and faith formation classes. I am excited to see our parish in action as we start up our regular routines. We will continue to get to know one another as we pray together and deepen our relationship with the Lord. I want to thank all of you who volunteer in the various activities in our parish. We need volunteers so that we can accomplish everything we do from praying together at Mass to feeding the hungry and teaching our young people the faith. You help make this a vibrant parish- Thank you.

We have many people who are financially generous too and this helps us to take care of the financial needs of the parish and maintain our buildings throughout the year. It is a very complex operation to keep everything going and in good repair. Even with money coming in, maintenance can be a challenge. We are currently working on fixing the elevator in the parish center and things are taking longer than expected. Thank you for your patience and generosity.

I look forward to the months ahead and pray that God will continue to bless and guide us in our faith.

With gratitude, blessings & love to you and your families,

Fr. Tom

BLOOD DRIVE THANK YOU

Immaculate Conception had a fantastic Blood Drive on August 18th! 52 people registered to donate, NONE were deferred and 7 donated via our Alyx machines (each donation counts as 2), for a total of 59 units collected!!! Since each pint donated has the potential to save three lives, your blood drive helped over 175 people. NYBC, our local hospitals and our community are so grateful. Thank you to our generous parishioners!

NO SURPRISES

We are told by all spiritual writers that one important point to bear in mind, as we seek to attain humility, is not to be surprised by our own faults and failures.

~ François Fénelon, Archbishop of Cambrai

SUMMER COMES TO AN END

Sadly, Summer comes to an end with Labor Day. Vacations are over, the children head back to school, and thoughts of the pending holidays begin to creep into our reality.

ALL WEEKEND MASSES WILL ONCE AGAIN BE OFFERED IN THE CHURCH AS OF NEXT WEEKEND, SEPTEMBER 7th.

To all our summer parishioners ... thank you for an awesome summer! Get home safe and we look forward to worshipping with you again next summer! God bless!

HUMILITY

Have you ever been in a group of people—maybe on a tour, at a social gathering, or at church—and discovered that you have just been talking with a well-known author, corporate CEO, great scholar, or politician? Your first thought is the hope that you didn't say anything to embarrass yourself; but your second thought is how much they seemed like such "regular" folks. What is it that makes people seem so "regular"? Today's readings give us a clue when they stress the importance of humility.

It is so hard for us not to tell the first person who will listen how busy we are, how hard we work, how much money we donate, and how important our job titles are. We think these accolades make a difference to people, and if we don't tell them, how will they ever know? But if our actions demonstrate our values, people will recognize our worth on their own. The words of Jesus show us how much better it is to let someone else recognize our worth than to be embarrassed because someone did not.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Religious Education Office Hours are:

Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday
9am to 5pm
631-288-4188

HAPPY LABOR DAY!!

We hope our families enjoy a restful weekend together as we say farewell to summer and get ready to welcome in a bright new school year!!

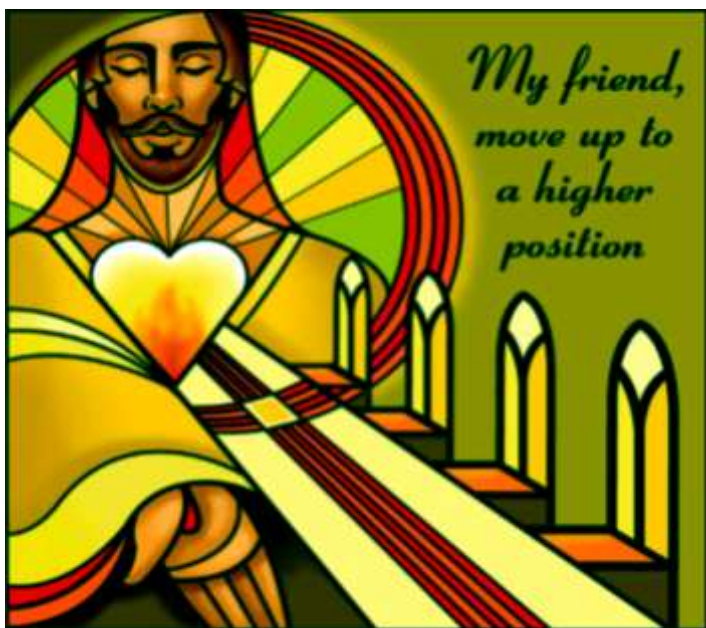

We have been busy preparing to begin our Religious Education program which begins at the end of September. How quickly that came up!

At this time, all registered families should have received their parent packet which includes the calendar, parent handbook & guidelines for the 2025-2026 year. If you have already registered for this year and have not received the packet, please give us a call.

We are looking forward to seeing you all soon!

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED!!

We're still in need of CATECHISTS for our Religious Education program -especially for Levels 3, 5, 6 & 8. Please prayerfully consider if God may be calling you to share your Faith with the children of Immaculate Conception Church. If you'd like to volunteer or have questions, please contact us at (631) 288-4188.

Do you know of some concern, or of some person with a special need for whom we ought to pray? We have 29 prayer warriors praying, please call Charles Schmidt at 631-288-4243 and leave a message with your prayer request.

REFLECTIONS

Living Stewardship

Be humble and turn to God in EVERYTHING. When you pray, recognize your littleness and His greatness.

Bulletin Reflection

Jesus teaches us the importance of humility. He also teaches us to give, especially to those who cannot repay. Give with love.

INTRODUCTION TO THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

Around this holy altar we join with rich and poor alike in offering the great prayer of praise and thanksgiving to God our creator.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Perhaps the most familiar traditional symbol that identifies bishops is the crosier that they carry. We see the shepherd's staff and immediately rich images from scripture come to mind, as well as the recollection that the first to respond to Christ's presence in our world were the shepherds. The staff is more than a walking stick; its crooked top is useful in snaring errant sheep but also in keeping the flock united.

Bishops carry the curve outward, indicating their ministry to the wider flock, while abbots (and some abbesses, too) carry the crosier with the curve pointing in, indicating that their ministry is to the monastery alone.

The crosier was once also carried by the pope, but was phased out centuries ago. You may recall that in pre-"popemobile" days, the pope was often carried around on a portable throne called a sedia gestatoria. Since he didn't do much walking, the need for a crosier was minimal. Pope Paul VI introduced the innovation of a walking staff in the 1960s, and everyone remembers Pope John Paul II's walking staff, not a crook, but a delicately sculptured crucifix. Thus, the pope carries a "pastoral staff" rather than a crosier. Precisely because the pope's ministry is universal, to the whole world, popes will likely leave crosiers in the hands of the bishops they commission for care of specific flocks.

INTRODUCTION TO THE LITURGY OF THE DAY

This weekend we recognize and honor all those who work. There is a dignity in work no matter how humble the task or job may seem or whether it is paid or not, and all who work or who are looking for work are celebrated on Labor Day. As we gather today around the table of the Lord, we hear Jesus teach guests also gathered around a banquet table of the importance of humility. May we approach both our work and the eucharistic table with humility, recognizing God's grace in making us worthy of both.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

When have I realized too late that I should have exercised some humility? What have I learned when exercising humility?
