TODAY'S READINGS

Sirach 15:15–20 There is set before you fire and water, life and death.

Psalm 119 "Blessed are they who follow the law of the Lord!"

1 Corinthians 2:6–10 Eye has not seen, ear has not heard what God has prepared for us.

Matthew 5:17–37 So it was said to your ancestors; or 5:20–22a, 27–28, but I say this to you.33–34a, 37

Keeping the commandments will save us, Sirach says in the first reading, for God's wisdom is infinite and all-powerful. In the Gospel, Jesus expands on four commandments in particular, laying out their implications and explaining the spirit of each. For those who take the commandments to heart, the kingdom of heaven awaits. Let us examine our consciences, conscious that we have the power to choose between good and evil, between life and death.

PRAYER REQUESTS

There is a great power in prayer. It is our lifeline to God. Through it we communicate with God, and people are strengthened, helped, and made whole.

Do you know of some concern, or of some person with a special need for whom we ought to pray? We have 29 prayer warriors praying, please call Charles Schmidt at 631-288-4243 and leave a message with your prayer request.

INTRODUCTION TO THE LITURGY OF THE DAY

On this final Sunday before Lent, our readings remind us of the commandments. God's infinite wisdom has given us laws that enable us to live a good, righteous life. Since we enter Lent later this week, today is a good opportunity to ask ourselves how we are keeping the commandments, especially the supreme commandment to love God and neighbor. Let us reflect on this as we prepare to receive the Lord in the Eucharist.

INTRODUCTION TO THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

The law teaches against murder. The Lord Jesus upholds this law and then amplifies it in his commandment against anger. The law teaches against dishonesty. The Lord Jesus goes one step further and teaches against doubting another's honesty. The law is only the beginning of justice and mercy. In this sacrament of the altar, our Lord Jesus shows the way to the full flowering of the kingdom.

THE CURE

The only known cure for fear is faith.
~ Lena K. Sadler

"If you choose you can keep the commandments," Sirach tells us. God "has set before you fire and water; to whichever you choose, stretch forth your hand" (Sirach 15:15, 16). This is a great mystery: God does not control us so completely that we cannot choose our own path. We have certain boundaries, of course, but no one but we can choose our way within those boundaries.

In today's reading from Matthew's Gospel, Jesus reminds us of our freedom and our responsibility for our lives. He calls us to look beyond the words of the commandments, all the way to their meaning. Look beyond the adultery to the selfishness that poisons our love. Look beyond the murder to the anger that eats away at our compassion. Look beyond the perjured testimony to the lies and deception that drive our behavior.

Our vocation is to choose life for ourselves, and to choose a path through our part of the world that helps make life possible and more abundant for others as well.

ASH WEDNESDAY

8:00am	Mass
12:00pm	Mass
4:00pm	Liturgy of the Word
5:30pm	Spanish Mass
8:00pm	Liturgy of the Word

Ash Wednesday is the first day of Lent, a Christian season of repentance and preparation for Easter, marked most visibly by the placing of ashes on the forehead as a reminder of human mortality and the call to spiritual renewal. It's observed by many Western Christian traditions, including Catholics, Anglicans, Lutherans, and others.

- Beginning of Lent: It starts a 40-day period (excluding Sundays) of fasting, prayer, and almsgiving leading up to Easter.
- Symbol of Ashes: The ashes—usually from burned palm branches from the previous year's Palm Sunday—are placed on the forehead in the shape of a cross. They symbolize repentance, humility, and the biblical reminder "you are dust, and to dust you shall return."
- Biblical Roots: While Ash Wednesday itself isn't commanded in Scripture, the use of ashes as a sign of repentance appears throughout the Old Testament (e.g., Job, Daniel, Jonah). Early Christian communities adopted this symbolism over time.

LENTEN REGULATIONS
FAST AND ABSTINENCE

There is a limit of one full meal on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday for all between the ages of 18 and 59 inclusive. All who have reached their 14th year are bound to abstain totally from meat on that day and ALL Fridays in Lent.

EASTER DUTY OBLIGATION

After they have received their First Holy Communion, Catholics are bound by the obligation of receiving Holy Communion at least once a year. This precept should be fulfilled during the Easter Season. Catholics are also bound to confess serious (mortal) sins at least once a year, but this is not limited to the Lenten/Easter Season.

EASTER FLOWERS

Easter Flowers can be dedicated to or in memory of your loved ones. Their names will be printed in the bulletin after Easter. A minimum suggested offering is $25. You may use the envelopes you receive in the mail or use envelopes you may find in the lobby of the Church and you can place them either in the collection baskets during Mass or drop off at the Parish Office. Thank you!

During Lent, Christians observe 40 days of confession, prayer and renewal. Just as our Savior fasted and faced temptation in the desert for 40 days, we use this season to grow our faith and prepare to minister.

Use this Bible Reading Plan to follow Jesus to the cross and then rejoice at his empty tomb on Easter. Travel through Scripture to reflect on who Jesus is and what he lovingly endured to give us life.

WEIGHTY

An ounce of practice is worth a pound of preaching.
~ John Ray

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

By the early 1950s some scholars were calling for the restoration of Communion of the faithful on Good Friday, since by then only a priest received, consuming the host from the Holy Thursday repository. In 1955 the new Good Friday liturgy was timed to begin at three o'clock everywhere, and included the option of Holy Communion, but without the Precious Blood that had originally been part of the liturgy. Today, there is increasing debate among theologians. Some feel that it would be better to fast from the Eucharist on Good Friday, focusing on the mystery of the cross and highlighting the Easter Communion. Others say that this Communion infuses the sadness of the day with awareness of Christ's victory. It is not a day of mourning, of course, and the Passion according to John grounds the liturgy in a sense of Christ's victory over death and the triumph of the cross. The tradition is rich and varied, and we are still in the early stages of recovering an ancient way of doing things.

Why do we call the day "good"? The English and Dutch languages share this name, and its origin stems from the name "God's Friday." The traditional name for the day in Latin is Feria VI in Parasceve, which translates as "The Sixth Day of the Week of Preparation." Other languages make do with "Holy Friday." In another part of England, as in Denmark, the people used to call it "Long Friday," a good description for a quiet day without work and no chance for play or a good meal!

Friday-Sunday, March 20-22, 2026

Arrival Friday after 3pm, (dinner at 5:30 pm) Ends Sunday by noon.

"Women Beneath the Cross"

Our focus will be on the mystery of suffering. We will explore the journey of Mary Magdala and Mary, the Mother of Jesus as they painfully and helplessly stand beneath the Cross of Jesus. As you experience being with a loved one or friend as they passively walk into their last stage of life, ask yourself: Is this the same as being beneath the Cross of the Suffering Jesus? If you experience moments of struggle to understand cognitive impairment or terminal/chronic illness, in what way do you feel accompanied by Jesus in your suffering or perhaps a crisis of faith? Our time together as a community at prayer will be the support and consolation we need to say, "Yes, Your will be done!"
